Dear Master’s Candidate,

Your overall average score on the writing assessment for EDSC 536 Curriculum Theory and Design was below the “meets expectation” level (< 4). This score indicates that you have difficulty in the following elements of writing:

- Completeness of Response & Quality/Clarity of Thought
- Organization, Sequence of Ideas/Focus
- Accuracy of Content/Vocabulary
- Resources/Support/Examples

Writing proficiency is instrumental to your success as a Master’s candidate, and Secondary Education faculty support your commitment to obtain the assistance needed to meet the standard of writing expected in graduate courses. A copy of this letter and a copy of the rubric assessment of your writing has been forwarded to the Graduate Program Advisor. It is your responsibility to schedule an appointment with your advisor to identify ways to improve and to demonstrate that improvement. Please feel free to contact me if you have additional questions.

My signature indicates I have read and understand the Secondary Education Writing Assessment Policy and the content of this letter. I realize that it is my responsibility to make an appointment with the Graduate Program Advisor to address these concerns. I understand that failure to do so may result in my being barred from enrolling in further classes.

The following plan has been approved:

Plan for the candidate to improve skills in English:
- Receiving tutorial help at the University Learning Center or other support center
- Enrollment in a composition course, e.g., English 301
- Other

Plan for monitoring candidate writing proficiency:
- Placing student on probation until writing performance is satisfactory
- Requiring course instructors of student to report to graduate advisor on student writing performance
- Student demonstration of completion of one of the above recommendations by way of a writing sample
- Other

Form revised 2/2007