The credential programs endeavor to admit only candidates who have demonstrated through the application process that they possess the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to become successful educators:

- Respect for all individuals enriched by an understanding of culture and diversity
- Commitment to working collaboratively
- Commitment to lifelong learning
- Wide constellation of knowledge and skills
- Ethical character demonstrated by
  - Having integrity, and being trustworthy, honest, courteous, open minded, and by treating others fairly and impartially.

Candidates are required to demonstrate professional behavior in all aspects of their participation in the credential program. Candidates are expected to be knowledgeable about and adhere to the professional standards for their field of teaching, as well as University standards outlined in the Schedule of Classes and Catalog, especially the sections on Student Conduct, Graduate Admission, and Academic Dishonesty, and student outcomes as described in the Education Unit’s Conceptual Framework. Individuals who are accepted for admission to a credential program become credential candidates and are responsible for meeting the high standards of personal conduct expected of professional educators. Candidates’ continued participation in credential programs at Cal State Fullerton is dependent upon their ability to adhere to professional standards as assessed within each credential program.

In order to continue to participate in a Credential Program and related Master’s Program (if there is one) you must:
- Behave in an honest and forthright manner.
- Follow standard scholarly practice in giving credit to sources used in assignments.
- Follow directions of University instructors, supervisors, and fieldwork and student teaching mentors such as master teachers.
- Behave in a manner expected of professional educators.
- Cooperate and collaborate with fellow candidates on projects and assignments.
- Maintain successful academic progress by passing all classes and maintaining at least a 3.0 grade point average. No classes for which grades of D or F were assigned will be used to meet credential requirements. In credit/no credit classes “B” level work is required to get credit.
- Maintain the standards of your department and/or program.

Credential candidates will be considered for removal from the program if they:
- Exhibit academic dishonesty as defined by the University Catalog
- Exhibit inappropriate student conduct as defined by the University Catalog
- Exhibit unacceptable academic, field, pedagogical, and/or clinical performance behaviors
- Fail to meet the standards set by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing
- Fail to behave according to the standards of the profession, public schools, university, department and/or program
- Fail to demonstrate credentialing competencies Procedures to be followed by departments to remove a student from a credential program:
1. The process to remove a candidate from a credential program in accordance with written department or program policies can be initiated by a program coordinator (or department chair if there is no coordinator) after consultation with the appropriate faculty members.
2. If a department is considering removing a candidate from the program, the student will be notified in writing of the specific reasons. The written notice can be provided in person or by registered mail. A copy of the document will be provided to the Associate Dean, College of Education.

Appeal procedures
1. Students who wish to appeal to remain in the program must do so within 10 workdays of notification, using the Request to Appeal form provided with the notice that must be submitted to the Associate Dean, College of Education.
2. The chairperson of the Credential Programs Committee will appoint one member of the committee and two members of the tenured Education faculty who are not from the program in which the candidate is enrolled to serve as an Appeals Board.
3. Within three workdays of receipt of a Request to Appeal form, the Associate Dean, College of Education will notify (by registered mail or in person) the student appealing of the date and time of the Appeal Board meeting.
4. The Appeals Board will hold a meeting to consider the candidate’s appeal within 6-10 workdays of the receipt of the appeal by the Associate Dean, College of Education.
5. The Candidate may make a written or oral presentation to the Appeals Board. Every effort should be made to provide written materials to the Associate Dean, College of Education prior to the meeting.
6. The Department Chair and/or Program Coordinator may also make a written and/or oral presentation to the Appeals Board.
7. Only the members of the Appeals Board and possibly legal staff of the University will be present when the board deliberates about their decision.
8. Within 3 workdays of the board meeting, The Appeals Board will provide the Department Chair, Program Coordinator, Associate Dean, College of Education, and the Candidate a written decision either upholding the dismissal of the student from the credential program or continuing her/his participation in the program.
9. The candidate may meet with the Associate Dean, College of Education to present any concerns the candidate may have that the due process procedures outlined in this document were not followed. The Associate Dean, College of Education has the power to ask the Chair of CPC to appoint a second Appeals Board if the outlined procedures were not followed.
10. The decision of the Appeals Board is final.
11. The Appeals Board may recommend to the Associate Dean, College of Education that the Commission on Teacher Credentialing be notified of very serious lapses in professional behavior.
